4 TRANSPERFECT GLOBAL, INC., et al.,

No. C 10-2590 CW

5 Plaintiffs,

ORDER REGARDING
POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

6 v.

8 MOTIONPOINT CORP.,
9 Defendant.

10 During the October 31, 2013 hearing on post-trial motions, 11 both parties represented that they intend to file additional 12 motions under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 50(b) and 59 after 13 the entry of judgment. Accordingly, within twenty-eight days of 14 the entry of judgment, the parties shall submit all post-trial
15 motions that they intend to file in this action.

16 MotionPoint shall file all of its post-trial motions in a 17 single brief, not to exceed twenty-five pages, on or before
18 December 13, 2013. TransPerfect shall also file all of its post-19 trial motions by that date in a single brief sufficient to 20 preserve its rights on appeal. However, as discussed at the 21 hearing, TransPerfect should file a new brief, not to exceed 22 twenty-five pages, on December 30, 2013 that contains all of its 23 arguments in support of its post-trial motions and its opposition 24 to MotionPoint's motions. MotionPoint shall then file its 25 consolidated reply and opposition in a single fifteen-page brief 26 on or before January 8, 2014. TransPerfect shall then file its 27
28

1 reply in a single fifteen-page brief on January 15, 2014. The 2 Court shall hear all motions at 2:00 p.m. on February 6, 2014.

3 Any arguments that the parties seek to raise regarding the 4 scope of the current permanent injunction should be included in 5 their briefs on post-trial motions. The Court will consider these 6 arguments and decide whether to amend the present permanent 7 injunction order when it considers the parties' post-trial
8 motions.

9 The parties must attend a mediation session by January 15,
10 2014. They shall agree on a private mediator or magistrate judge 11 by November 27, 2013. If they cannot agree on a mediator by that 12 date, they shall each submit a list of three mediators to the 13 Court. The Court will then select the mediator from the parties' 14 lists.

15 IT IS SO ORDERED.
